
Belated Cricket Career Underway

Well, last night I played in the 2nd game in a row and scored 23 to add to my previous score of 2.

Was much happier with the 23 obviously, nice to spend a little bit more time out there and as we have a maximum of 25 before retiring it was slightly dissapointing not to survive to that mark.

I am astonishingly unfit though, in a 40 run partnership in about 20 minutes I was really struggling for breath following some of the singles, and I was gutted when my parnter hit a 3!

So anyway, all good fun and delighted to have held my own.

Last week was a dissapointment because I got hit on the pad, ball ricoched onto my bat and then back onto the stumps, not a nice way to go in your first innings in 10 years.

I think I'll have to miss next week due to night shifts and squad rotation, but I'll be sure to update you all when there's more... I bet you can't wait.

You see, this is why yer "blacksmith" type player doesn't deal in anything other than boundaries or comfortable singles. No scurrying betwixt the wickets for him.
