Does anybody know the best website in the UK (more specifically, Scotland) for searching for property, i.e. one where all the estate agents have come together onto one site?

I think Rightmove might be one of the sites you're looking for - though I don't know how good it is for Scotland.

I've just been looking at Peterkins.com for Aberdeen and surrounding area. Remax is more nationwide in Scotland.

Ok, thanks a lot, I'll have a look at those.

It's a bit of a fleeting interest. If there were no midges though...
