Shit, I've only just noticed this (looking for something on another thread). Must have been swept aside by other world-related topics that day. I initially chose my user name unaware that there was a similar looking one on here. Was gonna change it when I saw yours but...erm never got round to it. Will do so now!
Apologies for any embarrassment and/or confusion caused.

Don't pay any attention to him, Johanista. He causes enough of his own embarrassment and confusion.
