
Superfly Tipping

You'd need to be wearing a purple suit, spats and a white fedora. And it's have to be a $20 bill, at least.

I ...errr... would like to know who he's tipping and who he's offing, though

Incidentally, the car in that illustration isn't just made up. It's a mid-70s Cadillac Eldorado. See this page to witness one in a 'before & after' restoration job.

I'm getting a Curtis Mayfield earworm:

"Everybody's misused him, ripped him up and abused him.
Another dumping plan, fly tippin' for The Man."

Eddie, you should know better
Brother, you know you're wrong
Mixing your recyclables and domestic waste ain't the way of a modern home,
They say "Where did we go wrong, my Lord?
Putting out explanatory leaflets from the very start
Trying to offer a waste disposal that's the very best
But the brother left the wheelie bin open and caused a right fucking mess

Eddie is everybody's friend
But sometimes we wonder now and then
The only time he'll choose you
Is when there's a skip to use
He just don't give a toss
And the friend pays the cost all the time
Must be something that freezes his mind
That's made him through greed so very blind
Fucking hell, he's brought a mattress
This time

"You really don't understand, do you? Hey man, don't you realise in order for us to make this thing work we gotta get rid of the FRIDGE, the SOFAS and the MICROWAVE, and then start over again clean"

"Hey man, no-one's shutting me off from my sofas. Not you, not the district council, nobody, man. If you want to get rid of the microwave I'll help you, but don't send your people after me. Alright, you can have the one with the manky leg"

"Ah, come on, JOHN, can't you see that we can't get rid of ONE without getting rid of the OTHER? We gotta come down on all of them at the same time in order for this whole thing to work for the people"

"Look, nobody's closing me off from my sofas"
