Ronaldinho to wear number 80 for Milan.

Ronaldinho or EIM?

Ronaldinho. I'm not one for the rigid squad numbering system. Besides, a non-traditional number is hardly unprecedented in Serie A.

If I was head of FIFA, the first thing I'd do is to set a rule is that no player aged 21 or over can have a squad number higher than 40. Youth players can if - and only if - all numbers from 12-40 have been taken up.

But he was born in 1980 you see. It's numerological.

I don't care if he was born on the 80/80/8080 at 80:80 PM, and his initials are AT - it's not a football number.

C'mon now, if he were all those things his number would HAVE to be 80. Be fair.

Another very small, yet somehow telling, indication that this transfer is not going to be the answer to all Milan's prayers.

That's quite some typo. What he actually meant was 'EIM'.

Sadly, I tend to agree. It bespeaks exceptionalism. Bespeaks, I say.
