

GIANT STADIUMS!

10 HAMPDEN PARK

Used by Scotland, Queen's Park
Capacity 51,866
Year opened 1903
Top fact Hampden still holds the record for the largest crowd ever for a football match in Europe – 149,415 saw Scotland beat England 3-1 here in 1937.

8 ANFIELD

Used by Liverpool
Capacity 54,074
Year opened 1884
Top fact The new Main Stand, opened in 2016, has boosted the matchday excitement. That area was quiet, compared to the Kop, but it's a noisy place now.

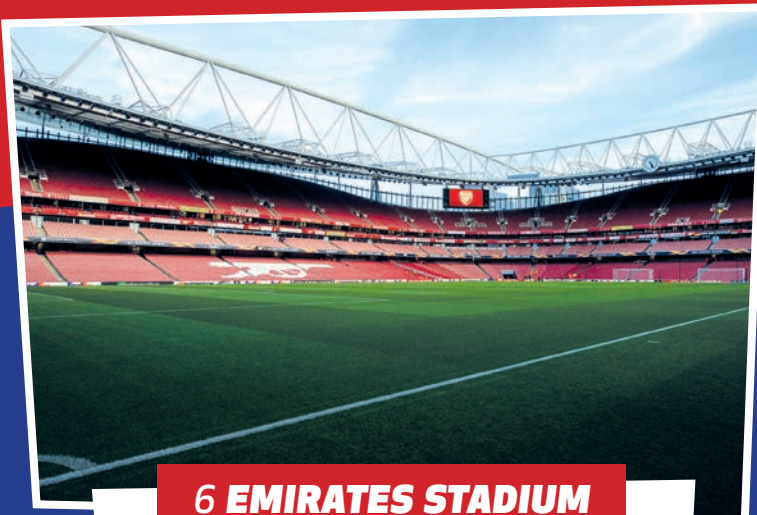

9 ST JAMES' PARK

Used by Newcastle United
Capacity 52,405
Year opened 1892
Top fact St James' Park is right in the centre of Newcastle, at the highest position in the city and the same place it has been for over 100 years.

7 ETIHAD STADIUM

Used by Manchester City
Capacity 55,097
Year opened 2002
Top fact Like the homes of Barcelona and Real Madrid, the Etihad pitch is below street level, meaning the stadium feels taller on the inside than it appears from the outside.

6 EMIRATES STADIUM

Used by Arsenal

Capacity 60,260

Year opened 2006

Top fact It has never hosted an England international, but Brazil have played friendlies here so their Europe-based players don't need to fly all the way to South America.

3 LONDON STADIUM

Used by West Ham

Capacity 66,000

Year opened 2012

Top fact Some think that the pitch is too far from the stands but home fans still roar the team on with their famous "bubbles" song.

5 CELTIC PARK

Used by Celtic

Capacity 60,411

Year opened 1892

Top fact Celtic fans have their own standing section. It generates a good, loud atmosphere, with plenty of singing and giant banners.

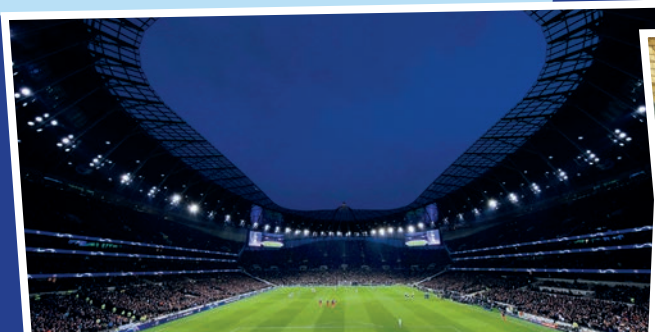

2 OLD TRAFFORD

Used by Manchester United

Capacity 74,994

Year opened 1910

Top fact The stadium was hit by bombs during the Second World War, which meant it was closed between 1941 and 1949.

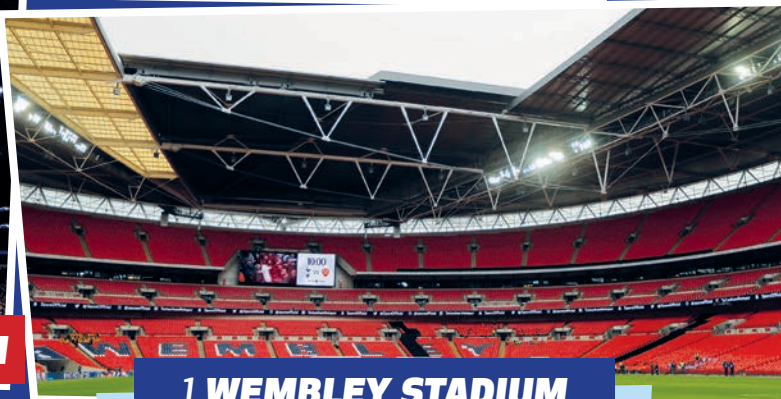

4 TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR STADIUM

Used by Tottenham Hotspur

Capacity 62,062

Year opened 2019

Top fact Work began on Spurs' new stadium in 2015. It is built partly on the site of their old ground, White Hart Lane.

1 WEMBLEY STADIUM

Used by England

Capacity 90,000

Year opened 2007

Top fact The giant arch that stretches above the stadium is 133 metres tall, which is the height of 45 elephants.
